

MN Manufacturing Careers Website

www.MnManufacturingCareers.org

MnManufacturing Careers

The Minnesota Manufacturing Careers website (www.MnManufacturingCareers.org) serves Minnesotans interested in manufacturing and engineering careers. If you are a student, job seeker, or career changer, the website can help you research manufacturing careers, learn about manufacturing education options, and find Minnesota manufacturing employers.

Visit the Minnesota Manufacturing Careers website at www.MnManufacturingCareers.org

The Minnesota Manufacturing Careers website is a part of ISEEK (www.iseek.org). Using ISEEK's wealth of data as a springboard, Minnesota Manufacturing Careers shines a light on opportunities within manufacturing. Substantial manufacturing-related content has also been added.

careers

The Minnesota Manufacturing Careers website offers descriptions of the whole range of careers in manufacturing: engineering careers, production careers, logistics and distribution careers, maintenance and installation careers, and careers in business, management, and administration.

You'll find detailed career profiles, including typical hourly wages and employment outlook, education needed and where to get it, skills needed, and more. You'll also find:

- Green manufacturing information
- Manufacturing careers in high demand
- Facts about manufacturing today
- Licensed manufacturing careers
- Profiles of manufacturing industries

education

The Minnesota Manufacturing Careers website gives you access to a wealth of data to achieve your education goals, including:

- 80+ manufacturing majors
- 1,400+ manufacturing programs
- Details about all the education and training options in your region

Job seekers can explore pathways that get careers started. Students can get help preparing for manufacturing careers by looking into camps and classes. Teachers will find an extensive list of educator resources related to manufacturing.

Fun Things To Do On The Website

- Watch videos about manufacturing careers
- Learn which careers pay most
- Find out what modern manufacturing is like
- Sign up for a camp or class
- Locate a training program to advance your career
- Contact a manufacturing employer
- Voice your opinions with online polls
- Update your knowledge with manufacturing news

jobs

Find occupations that are in high demand in your region. Locate manufacturing employers.

Current job openings are accessible on Minnesota Manufacturing Careers, thanks to a partnership with MinnesotaWorks, the state job bank. You'll also find up-to-date salary data and manufacturing careers in demand in your region.

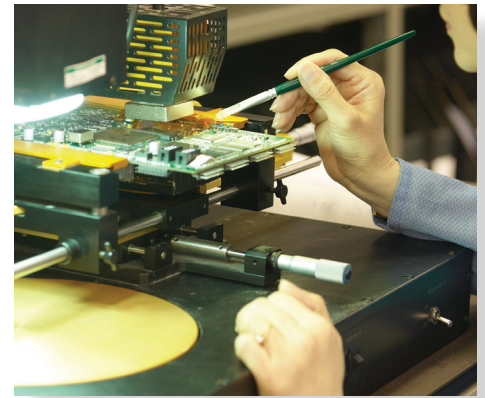

The website has valuable information about how to find jobs in manufacturing, a manufacturing business search with contact information, links to job websites, clues leading to the hidden job market, and tips about social online networking.

Educators, if you are teaching high school students interested in manufacturing, you'll find resources like curriculum and lesson plans, and a list of skills to teach in "Educator Resources."

Students, job seekers, families, and counselors, the "Links" page has extensive resources for further information on every aspect of manufacturing, within Minnesota and nationally.

Employers, many providers of training and business development services are listed in "Employer Training Resources."

www.MnManufacturingCareers.org

Minnesota
STATE COLLEGES
& UNIVERSITIES